Summer has come and gone, and just like that, it's the holiday season! Thanksgiving is this week and Christmas will be here before we know it. Where has the year gone?

We had a busy late summer and fall—Texas Days was a blast as always! All four of our Shalman units were fabulous—the best of the weekend! Thanks to everyone for making it a fun, memorable weekend!

The Queen's Gala was wonderful! Thank you to Pr. Tirzah Sue and her team for making it a beautiful night.

Now we look forward to what's ahead.....our Supreme Queen Official Visit AND our 75th Anniversary Celebration! The dates are January 13 and 14 and it is going to be a great weekend! If you haven't already, take the time soon to get registered so we have a headcount—we were fortunate to get a weekend visit this year, so hopefully LOTS of us will be able to attend!

We also have a fun membership event planned for Saturday, December 16. We will be in Grapevine again—with the Dean Martin and Frank Sinatra tribute and strolling and shopping on historic Main Street. This should be a fun day!

I wish for you all a Happy Thanksgiving, a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! I hope you are all able to spend some fun, quality time with your families during this holiday season! Please keep those who may be missing loved ones during these holidays in your thoughts and prayers.

Royal’s Report

Princess Royal

Let me just start with saying Texas Days was a BLAST! Never a dull moment. Now looking forward to Texas Days next year in Grapevine.

I feel like a broken record but this year needs to slow down. I cannot believe that it is already November with Thanksgiving and Christmas just around the corner. Time to start decorating!

I am currently working on the 2023 Temple Fundraiser. I am bringing back the No Bake – Bake Sale! Thank you to all who have contributed.

I also have available raffle tickets for 6 night suite at Supreme in Boise, Idaho or $1,000 cash. The tickets are $20 each and the drawing will be held on January 31, 2024.

The year is almost at an end with our fundraising events. The Queen’s Gala was a huge success and a lot of fun by all attending to support the CEF/CRA raising over $4000 plus funds raised by our Step-Up Sale and Door and Dinner donations. But what is the CEF? Do you know?

The Daughters of the Nile Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public corporation of volunteer women dedicated to the growth of its permanent endowment and, through its annual distribution, benefits Shriners Children’s™. This is where we as Daughters of the Nile support our hospital giving through funds raised.

I do want to personally thank each of you who has helped support me in these endeavors financially. I also want to especially thank those who have given of their time and talents to make each, and every event go smoothly. A special thank you to our decorating team for their hard work at making the Queen’s Gala a beautiful event.

Our December dinner will prove to be fun as we do an ornament exchange following the meal. Start planning what you will bring to join in the fun.

Badoura’s Breakout
By: Carla Fuller, Princess Badoura

Hello everyone! The Holiday season is on us. And it is time, once again, to think about giving to the hospital. Here is a list of items they are requesting. Please bring your items to December Session.

Infants and toddlers: Infant rattlers and tethers, interactive toys with lights, board books in English and Spanish, crib side soothers and mobiles, musical toys, stacking blocks and toys, toy figurines and play sets.

Preschool: Train sets, pretend play-dolls, tea sets play food, tools, fisher price medical kits, Lego junior and Duplo sets, action figures, play sets, toy trucks and cars, musical instruments, memory games.

School age: Action figures and Barbie’s, craft and art kits, headphones, Lego sets, board and card games, hand heard games, popular TV/movie character toy figurines.

Teens: Adult coloring books with markers or colored pens, comfy slippers, crossword, sudoku and word search books, board and card games, wireless headphones and earbuds, foam stress balls hand puzzles and Rubik cubes, nail art and polishes, purses, scarves, belts, wallets, small blue-tooth speakers, teen art activities- jewelry sets, watercolors, robotics etc. Interactive journals.

Here are a few things the hospital ask we NOT bring: Latex balloons or toys, plush toys, food items, sports equipment, toy weapons, scented items, bicycles or wagons and any religious themed items.

I want to thank everyone for their generosity and a big thank you goes out to IIs. Sir Bob Moore for taking all the items I purchased to the Galveston hospital. It was a car load for sure. We sent $2490 including gift cards, blankets, shampoo and conditioner, feminine products, bars of soap and diapers.

Wishing each of you a wonderful holiday season.

Clownette's Corner

By: Princess Diane Moore

Good day ladies. The Texas heat has finally passed, and it's time for a jacket and cup of nice hot drink.

With Texas Days behind us, we were able to raise $1600 on our Coach purse fundraiser. We just sent the hospital $2000 to buy special goggles to wear when a child is being bathed or showered.

It's time to think about your Thanksgiving dinner, and time with family. Times have changed, and there may be more plastic ware used than fine china, but memories with family and friends can still be made. As soon as the plates are cleaned, thoughts of putting up the Christmas decorations are soon to follow.

December brings us parades, and a Christmas dinner meeting on the 12th at a restaurant to be determined. We are asked to bring blankets for the Galveston hospital and Shreveport clinic.

Safe travels during the holidays.

Can you believe it's November, ladies? The State Fair of Texas has finished its 24 day run and 2023 Texas Days in Tyler is now just a fond memory.

Anyone else welcoming the change as we said farewell to daylight savings time last weekend? After a long hot summer, I'm looking forward to a bit of fall in Texas!

Praying for everyone as we approach the upcoming holiday season. Please remember, many people feel especially vulnerable or sad at this time of year. Keep our sisters in your prayers and close to your thoughts.

If you need me, I'm a quick text, call or email away. Please send me news of those in need or those with good news! Many thanks to those sweet ladies who notify me when someone is ill or in need of support.

My email is shalman90chaplain@yahoo.com. My phone number: 214-543-3264.

Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas!

Director Amy is working on our Christmas luncheon—Sunday, Dec. 10 at 1:30 pm at Celebration—please make sure you let her know if you will attend.

We also need costume wearers for the SQOV in January!

Thanks,
